

Marie Scott: White Mesa, Arizona

Navajo

Beadwork

Marie was born and raised in Tuba City, Arizona on the Navajo Reservation. She learned beadwork from her eldest sister Elizabeth Curley when Marie was in her teens. Marie has a family full of artists that inspire and teach her. She enjoys working with fire colors, rainbow colors and creating story tellings. Now Marie and her husband are teaching their children as well and hope they carry on the family's artistic traditions. This is Marie's first year at the Tesoro Indian Market and Powwow.

